Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

Credit card companies have for quite some time now been allowed to charge excess fees and interest rates to the very people who can least afford it. The economy is struggling, and the very people who keep it moving smoothly are those that have been hurt by these practices. If you are truly interested in getting the economy back on track, with growth and stability, start fighting for the little guy and stop giving in to the big corporations.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Maryann Kane
