Subject: Regulation AA

Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

Part of the reason this country is in a recession, is the dismally poor record of credit lenders. When they extend far more credit them people can pay, the slap fee after fee on their users, the credit companies are destroying our economy piece by piece.

It is time to set limits for these 'carpet baggers' as they apparently can not regulate themselves.

Sincerely,

Ms. Zoie walden
