Dear Email comments,

Dear Sir or Madam;

In your hands are the ability to change the business practices of business cards. Consumers have no recourse but to believe and hope that elected officials do something and NOW. Sound business establish a fair balance between profits and costs to businesses, not the eroding of the consumer base that justifies its very much existence. However this wont be seen unless the stock price falls, after millions of credit card users are bankrupt...

Why wait for for this to happend? Please do what you have to do.

God Bless America,
Gonzalo Mosquera
