Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

As a common citizen, a person with little wealth and a monthly bill payer, I can tell you I am really sick of being on the short end of things time and time again. I work, my wife works, we pay all our bill "as agreed", and still are at the mercy of corporate boardrooms. These people don't care about us as people and their decisions are based solely on their "bottom line". Please enact your credit card rules as soon as possible to relieve our next "surprise".

Sincerely,

Mr. Douglas Parker
