Dear Email comments,

I am writing about my son who almost lost his home because of the interest that kept going up and up on him. He didn't realize what was happening until it was almost to late. His brothers and sisters helped him out and now he is on the right track. It is not right for them to keep raising the interest rate without any reason or not telling the person what they were doing. Thank you for all of the help you can give.

Sincerely,

Mrs. martha kenney
