Comments:

I opened a new business with every dime I had due to the real estate market decline which I was in. I paid bills online but some accounts were direct withdrawl. I had just enough money to cover 6 bills of 75 dollars / 60 dollars / 45 dollars / 39 dollars 199 dollars and 30 dollars. A direct withdrawl came out putting me at 198 dollars left in the bank. That would have covered all but the large one of 199 but the bank started with the large one just a dollar over the 198 and hit me with 6 35 dollar fees. This gets better since I did them online they tried to withdrawl them again in two days saying it was legal knowing the money was not in the bank now and hit me for another 6 / 35 dollar fees. This cause me to not be able to keep phone or electric on now I lost everything and all my money in the store which was going great already. Stop raping people there are no laws to protect the consumer anymore Just the money people.
