

From: "Patti Sloan" <Pattibethsloan@suddenlink.net> on 07/26/2008 01:35:04 PM

Subject: Regulation AA

Docket R-1314 I have a complaint about credit card companies sending credit card offers to my teenager. Without reading the fine print these deals look to good to be true and they are. To get a child in debt and make it sound so good and inviting is wrong on so many levels. Leave the children alone. A childs life could be destroyed without them having the life experiences necessary to see what incurring all this debt is doing to their future.