

From: Hearmorenow@aol.com on 07/29/2008 06:05:04 PM

Subject: Regulation AA

How can credit card companies get away with charging me 28.9% interest on my credit cards ? I thought anything over 24% was loan sharking. (Loan sharks may be cheaper and they make house calls). For a person with any significant amount of debt it is impossible to get out from under. Thank you for letting me vent.

Charles Balyozian