Adding additional regulations on Mortgage Originators is not the answer. Capping our income on a fixed loan basis will cripple the economy. You will have an $8.00 per hour part time employee handling peoples largest debts they will ever have. Doesn't seem too bright to me. We earn a good living, and for people that have no clue what it takes to originate loans start talking about capping the income we make is a gross missue of their Elected Power.

This is wrong.
