My husband and I have owned our Mortgage Broker company for 28 years. WE have worked with thousand of homebuyers and treated everyone of them fairly. Because of a few bad mortgage brokers the government is basically going to put all of us out of business to protect the consumer. WHAT ABOUT THE BANKERS!!! They make YSP also but it is just not called that but you turn a blind eye to them and their practices. I can't tell you how many clients we have gotten from banks that treated them badly. It is just another example of "He who has the gold makes the rules". So in this bad economic time when people are loosing their jobs and President Obama says make more jobs you are going to put thousand of people out of business. WE will never be able to compete with the banks when they can make what ever they want and don't have to disclose a thing. This is CRAZY. I have to make a living too and your taking that away from me.
