Comments:

I am writing request that the review and comment period be extended for 60-days beyond the December 24th deadline. Four months is not enough time for industry and consumer groups to analyze the impact of such an invasive and far reaching manadate. Further, I request that the Federal Reserve release all notes, studies, minutes and data used to draw the conclusion that lead to this proposed change to Reg Z. Second, I would like to know why the proposed change to Reg Z apparently excludes all originations except those employed by mortgage brokers.
