Comments:

Reg Z is an atrocity to the industry as a whole, this bill will eliminate the ability to competitively provide borrowers with all the options that would be deemed to compete for the borrower's benefit of getting an appropriate loan that would be beneficial to their specific set of circumstances. Lending industry look out for the disaster that's about to happen because lawmakers have NO CLUE of the impact that this will have on the consumer's ability to secure a loan. Let's review the present loans that these lawmakers have, and go through the process of letting them see first hand as to how they or better yet their constituents will be effected. Due your true due diligence and then kill this bill. Before you kill the economy further.
