Comments:

The Truth in Lending Act from 1968 gives borrowers the right of rescission. This proposed rule will disable the most effective legal tool that borrowers have to fight foreclosures. I strongly urge this proposed rule be withdrawn. In my and many others' opinions, the Fed has already woefully failed to protect the little people of this nation in favor of criminal banks. This proposed rule so blantly protects the fat cats that it is an embarrassment. Please withdraw this proposal.
