Reg.Z must not be altered. The rescission period must be allowed and if it is not, this country will indeed begin an uprising and the fed reserve will be demolished. We know it's not working in our best interests and there are a few million people who are becoming more and more irritated at the lengths to which the fed reserve is willing to go to bring our country down. If you make the mistake of altering reg z i think you'll see just how powerful The People can become. It will indeed be the proverbial straw, that doesn't break the camel's back but suffocates the camel, slowly - as you're trying to do to us. Bernake might want to keep a closer eye on his treasures as they may slip through his hands more quickly than anyone could anticipate. Sad that he can't see he's a tool.
