It is absolutely amazing how the Federal Reserve as An agency of government, is more concerned with the accumulation of wealth by the wealthy and totally ignores the needs of the citizenry at large. Federal Reserve owes its existence to the voters and citizenry of the USA, and not a special group of individuals. Nevertheless considering the existing climate of the economy , the housing market and the banksters, one would believe that Federal reserve would not entertain any attempts to water down TILA , one of the protections of the weak against the strong. such action is totally unconscionable. Clearly the people who run the Federal Reserve believe that the contents of BANKERS MANIFESTO of 1917 to 1934 is the duty of the Federal Reserve to promote and implement . I will be writing to every Congress person to inform them that we the people find such actions by the Federal Reserve deserves to be sanctioned and the perpetrators be prosecuted and tried for treason.
