Comments:

Given how borrowers and homeowners are already being completely screwed by banks that are lying and cheating daily, and how the banks are committing massive fraud in courts around the country, any rule that would enable further criminal behavior, to the detriment of the American public and to the benefit of the banks, is sickening and abhorrent. If you allow this to go through, not only will even more citizens be seriously harmed, the anger and rage at this massive fraud will continue to grow... along with the complete distrust in our long history of justice, due process, and property rights. Please do NOT allow this to go through. It will be even more devastating than what homeowners are already going through, to the tune of tens of millions of people. Do you - any of you - have any compassion for your neighbors and friends? Please, have a heart. People are suffering enough already.
