The only way to keep qualified appraisers in this industry is to keep fees where a "professional" can make a "professional" income, instead of being pimped out to the AMC's, whose major interest is how fast and how cheap can you complete the assignment. A third party must be put in place to assure a reasonable fee. As is the current industry is in deep trouble. As appraiser's we currently have our necks at the wants & wishes of the AMC's. Who put the fox in charge of the hen house? Please help!
