

From: Christine Thierry
Subject: Reg Z - Truth in Lending

Comments:

A ban on indirect compensation will eliminate cost-effective loan options for thousands of consumers, increasing costs significantly.

A ban only on the broker's compensation will destroy small business mortgage originators in this country, resulting in fewer market participants, less competition and ultimately higher prices for consumers.

My company of 14 years will go out of business.

Christine Thierry, CRMS
Senior Loan Officer