Comments:

I am a loan officer and I agree that loan officers should not be compensated in anyway based on the terms of the loan. In fact, we should act as "agents" to the borrower, working in their best interest for a fee. Loan officers should not be monopolized by an employer, they should be free to choose where the money comes from, from many competitive sources so as to insure the best deal possible for the Borrower. I hope drastic changes to the industry are coming quickly!
