As a person who has been in the mortgage industry for close to 30 years, I can tell you that the legislation being proposed would be incredibly detrimental to many small business owners, also known as mortgage brokers. Not all of us are bad people. Overall, the industry is full of honest, hard-working professionals who take pride in helping borrowers obtain loans for their property that is best suited to their needs. I have seen many pieces of legislation come and go in my 30 years in business and I feel that this one does the most amount of harm. It does nothing to help and/or protect the consumer and just puts more people in the unemployment lines. I urge you to reconsider. Thank you.
