

From: Kristin Coleman
Subject: Regulation Z -- Truth in Lending

Comments:

The current practice of allowing AMC's to charge $375 for an appraisal fee to the consumer and then getting a $175 appraisal through an appraisal management company is a breach of public trust. Reasonableness dictates that a quality product that is reliable will not generally be obtained in this process.