Dear Federal Reserve:

Debit card swipe fees cost businesses a lot of profit per year. This profit is then added to the price of the merchandise sold. Why should we allow banks to profit MAJORLY from these fees. The banks have profitted immensely over the years by charging inordinate fees to not only businesses but thier customers and we as the PEOPLE of the United States had to bail them out for their reckless speculation. I am not for this proposed law, PERIOD!

Sincerely,

Mark Jones
