Enough is enough already with these AMC's raping us appraisers with our fee's. I am in favor of the HVCC and new laws that prohibit the broker and appraiser afiliation but if the work is going to be steered to these AMC's then why should we not get paid what our normal and regular (fair and reasonable) fees are/were? I have been at the mercy of these money making/raping AMC's(whom are owned by the banks themselves)way too long and this new rule/law that is to come into effect on April 1, 2011 has to be strictly enforced that they pay us our normal/reasonable fee's as well as let us collect these fee's at the door so we know that there is no funny business going on with them trying to bleed the customer and piggy back additional fee's to the customer. Please enforce these new changes. Thanks Tom Granito
