I'm an appraiser, I used to do half the work (now 6 comps and the useless market conditions form in addition to aerial maps and 7 pages of "requirements" for a 2 page form. All this for half the money. The bank owned AMC's finance their existence on MY back with work ONLY for the lowest bidder. The law went into effect last month but they have another 6 months to "Study" the issue. How many AMC's do you think will have their "study" done before the last day and pay anything resembling fairness? Do you honestly believe you are getting anything other than minimum work for minimum pay? This whole system makes just as much sense as "too big to fail so lets quadruple their size". You are doing everything humanly possible to eliminate small business so your Bank Masters can have it better. I've worked 19 years so that I can be owned by Chase, Citi, Wells and BOFA. What a country!!!Russia may be better.
