A congressman can serve one term, four years, and draw a full salary for the rest of his life! I work all my life and you want to take social security and leave the congressman's salary alone, please reply to the email address furnished & explain that logic. I have never voted for a politician with the intent of worshipping him the rest of his life, do we need to change voting laws to disclose how much these elected "servants" are really going to cost us? I lost ALL my stock in (HMB, GM) yet no one stepped in to bail me out! Instead you expect me to continue bailing out everyone at my expense, it needs to end. The government is totally out of control! Would you please resign and just go home?
