I am a small Real Estate Investor in Florida .With the tighter credit requirements of local banks 60% or more of the people that I work with can't qualify for bank financing. They want to be a homeowner. For all these people to own American Dream Home only seller financing option is a way to go. This bill will hurt people and took away an ability to achieve their dreams. I would strongly urge you to reconsider this bill; with the entire inventory on the market we don't need another restriction to hurt the Real Estate Market and our economy.
