I am a Realtor that has been learning to respond to the ever changing real estate market. I am shocked that the Fed is not looking out for ALL American's and their home owner needs/crisis. It doesn't put money in my pocket when people rent their homes and/or seller's hold financing in off market situations but it's NECESSARY for the good of the whole. There is enough for EVERYONE and restrictions are NOT the answer. If I can see the big picture without worrying about my small section of the world/pocketbook....the Fed certainly should and protect ALL American's and their rights.....We are still America aren't we? Don't loose sight of who we are...we hired government officials to make us stronger in who we are. Get it together!
