Comments:

Obama is giving the Federal Reserve the authority to eliminate a seller's right to provide their own financing to buyers. It's called the Dodd Frank Act.

Interesting how they just sneak so much past us! If our country is ever going to recover, it's not going to be by Overgovernmenting... I know that's not a real word! Our government is changing things that our forefathers fought for, our Freedom to invest our own money however we choose! That's how I'm seeing it. But how can we stop them?
