Comments:

Do not continue to erode the personal freedom of the American people by taking away the right to control our property as we see fit. When the market and institutions go against the people we need to have personal right to do what we need to do to move on with new opportunities. Do not take away the ability for the people to do seller financing when the government, banks and the economy provide no other way to sell a home. It is time for the government to leave the people alone and let them do what is needed with their property.
