Comments:

I object in the strongest terms possible to the proposed new rule of not allowing seller financing. Are you mad? Have you gone off your rocker? The housing industry is in a terrible slump. We may be going into another great depression and you make such stupid rules. I am shocked and saddened by this proposed rule. Please, remove such rule immediately. It will cause a lot more problem to the housing industry. It will hurt the poor enormously. You already regulate the lending and banking industry and we have millions of foreclosures already. Do not implement such madness, I implore you. Henri Jeanrenaud
