

From: Loren Bawn
Subject: Incentive-Based Compensation

---

Comments:

I work every day with hundreds of people who have no work as a direct result of the crash brought on by unrestrained greed. What good is regulation if it is not enforced? It should be obvious to anyone of minimal intelligence that Wall Street cares not a bit for main street, working Americans, or even their own investors. Please implement strong regulations and ENFORCE them, including solid claw back provisions.

Thank you for considering my comment,

Loren Bawn