

From: Roland Smith
Subject: Incentive-Based Compensation

Comments:

I expect my comments to do zero good. But perhaps I will feel better.

The only way to fix the system that I can see is to incarcerate ALL the banksters..., starting with the World Bank and working downwards. However, we ALL know that will never happen. We must end up with the "have's and the have-not's" and we ALL know how that ends - blood in the streets. I believe Rothschild said that was the time to buy. Conclusion..? "The more things change; the more they stay the same", Insecurity, I believe, is the root of greed. Hardwired into our nature. More wealth leads to more power and isn't that what it is all about? Outside the "system" we have the right to starve and die. I believe, if we do not/cannot change..? we are destined for extinction.

What will be will be and we have no one to blame but ourselves.

Roland Smith