

From: Roger Fight
Subject: Incentive-Based Compensation

Comments:

The FED has become the lap dog of the big banks. Shame on you. Start developing rules and regulations that work to the benefit of middle income Americans and prevent the financial fraudsters from periodically crashing the economy. Pay for short term performance just invites them to game the system at the expense of taxpayers.

Thank you for considering my comment,

Roger Fight