

Louisiana Bankers Association

Regulation JJ, Incentive-Based Compensation Arrangements (Docket No. R-1410)

On March 1, 2012, members of the Louisiana Bankers Association met with Governor Elizabeth Duke to discuss the interagency proposal on incentive-based compensation arrangements. Some association members expressed concern as to whether the proposal would be applied in a manner that may effectively prohibit the tying of an employee's compensation to a bank's overall profitability.