Your comment: Please do not move forward with this amendment as it "...will amount to a substantial weakening of the post-crisis (2008) reforms." These are the words of former Treasury secretaries, Jacob Lew and Timothy Geithner, and Ben Bernake and Janet Yellen, both former Federal Reserve leaders. That these four financial powerhouses see this measure as a dangerous step backward, I can only hope that you will take their concerns into consideration and not move forward with this amendment as proposed.
