Your comment: You want to kill the President...again. What if I am President next? This year and a day later is not going to let you. You need to acknowledge the manner in which the act of sabotage on the other comment whose deadline for comment was on the same day as this one was set up and make sure that this time you do NOT again code your public comment periods to engage in activities that are Unconstitutional. The supra-Constitutional activities thusfar meted out by the Federal Reserve are unacceptable. I do hope that the Federal Reserve ceases and desists in any acts of attempted economic engineering to obstruct prosecution of financial crimes connected to this cycle or anything revealed about past abuses involving Federal Reserve policy or those attempting to manipulate their relationship with the Federal Reserve to cover up for their crimes. Targeted "liquidation" of political opposition is against current Executive Orders as well as Treasury policy, even if allegedly cited as justified by National Security operators.
