Dear Federal Reserve System,

I appreciate the Federal Reserve Board encouraging public input on ways to modernize and improve the Community Reinvestment Act (CRA).

An updated CRA that responds to changes in the banking sector, such as the decrease in community-based banks and the evolving ways in which consumers use banks will have a modest impact unless the evaluation process for banks awards "outstanding" and "satisfactory" grades less frequently than in the past. The current rating system suggests that the banking system is doing a good job meeting the CRA's goals, which is clearly not the case.

We need an evaluation process that more meaningfully addresses systemic inequities in access to credit, expands financial inclusion, and combats redlining, particularly for communities of color and rural communities.

This means a CRA that includes an explicit focus on racial equity. Data consistently shows that if income is controlled for as a variable, loan denials correlate to race. Examiners should downgrade bank ratings when persistent disparities are found in lending or banking services.

Please support the CRA as one tiny way to promote equitable access to affordable housing across IL.

Thank you,

Jill Skwerski

Sincerely,
Jill Skwerski
