Your comment: Providing monetary relief for reckless casino gambling banks with depositors money is reckless itself by decreasing the $1 value and inflation keeps going up. Its like telling the smack addict hey I got some smack in case you get in a bind. Yes you told us you were quitting but wink wink nodge nodge say no more. The lowest income workers are paying for the reckless economic policy. If you want to lower wages try lowering the fed chairs wages, and Ms. Yellen wages and the bank gamblers who made bad decisions causing inflation. Stop punishing the poorest of the poor they didn't cause inflation. Their minute raises don not even cover rent hikes, food hikes, gas hikes everything hikes. If you keep insisting on lower workers wages this will cause crime to increase 1000x fold. Suicide rates will increase 5000x fold. Stop Stop. It's time to think about other people who keep this country going and allowing the rich to live like Kings.
