Your comment: I believe the vast majority of the people who typically do not have a voice in these matter's are completely fed up with the "too big to fail" system we are in. Where people who by all definitions of the word are CRIMINALS who on a daily basis rob from the 99 % and steal everything we work for. They manipulate everything in our system to intentionally defraud the public. The take on huge risks in doing so and then get bailed out by "we the taxpayer's". The current system rewards crime and has zero punishments. Stop bailing out criminals with my money! Instead, let them fail and send them to prison. All you are currently doing is giving them incentive to take on risk and have no repercussions for their crimes against the people. We no longer need banks. It is an outdated system with too many loopholes for criminals to act maliciously. We all know they are currently at such extreme risks they will certainly fail as long as they are not bailed out. They deserve and need to fail. Anything else is unjust and makes you nothing more than an accomplice in crime.
