

ANONYMOUS

Proposal and Comment Information

Title: Prohibition on Use of Reputation Risk or Other Supervisory Tools to Encourage or Compel Banking Organizations to Engage in Politicized or Unlawful Discrimination, R-1884

Comment ID: FR-2026-0002-01-C1653

Submitter Information

Name: Anonymous

Submitted Date: 03/11/2026

There is no reason banks should have a say in what , I as a working adult, am using my money to purchase. It is money I earn and use legally, and banks provide a service in order help purchase the things that I either use, need or just something I purchase to enjoy a product/service. It is a disservice to both patrons and banks to put restrictions on what someone legally uses their money for or what they're legally earning money from! It is how you lose people working with / using a service and will do more harm than any good. Personal opinions do not belong in a service such as banking, and the only way their reputation will actually be hurt is by pushing people away NOT by someone using their money for adult entertainment or digital assets. I repeat banks should NOT have the right to deny someone to use their money or to receive money because of "Company Values" it is none of their business what the general public legally uses their money for, end of statement.