If I wanted Payment Processors (Mastercard, Paypal, Visa, etc.) to give their opinions on what I can & can't spend my hard earned money on, I would've asked!

They should only need to know the answers to three simple questions;

1. Is the product itself illegal to purchase? (No)
2. Is the purchase going to cause mass-collateral damage or harm to other persons? (No)
3. Has the vendor been found guilty of breaking the law by a verified law enforcement agency? (No)

If no to all 3, then mind your business!
