Removing reputational risk is 100% something that needs to be considered - it shouldn't even be a question. It's a bipartisan concern of everyone, this is a problem that affects all of us. Payment processors have leveraged this to silence Republicans, people of the LGBTQ spectrum, and more - and in recent memory, the largest wave of payment processor censorship was a direct result of foreign action from a lobbyist group in Australia - people who don't even live here! Foreigners should not have the power to leverage the American Free Market
