I have been working and banking since I was 16 years old. I earn every cent I make and I am not going to be told how to spend my own money that I legally earned on legal goods and services. I give my money to banks for safekeeping and safekeeping only. if my bank tries to tell me, a grown 22 year old adult, how to spend my hard earned money, I am simply going to stop banking altogether. that is a ridiculous infringement on my personal freedoms and defeats the purpose of working to earn my own money. This is a huge overstep and entirely unreasonable proposal.
