Dear Madames and Sirs,

I am too exhausted by the non-stop shenanigans of this administration to be diplomatic with my comment. This shouldn't be a problem as we are certainly no longer a nation that values diplomacy. My comment is simply this: Are you nuts? We CANNOT afford to bail out the banks again, which is exactly what they are counting on when they lobbied for this dogturd of a change.

Thank you for your attention to this matter (lol)
