To whom it may concern:

I'm an investor and American who wants to see America be the leader in Bitcoin. I know that not everyone feels that way, but we should all be able to agree that the Basel risk weight for Bitcoin is egregious and will have a punitive impact that will hinder our ability to lead in Bitcoin. I don't think Basel should necessarily make Bitcoin Tier 1, maybe down the road, but it should actually be reflective of its true risk.

This not only hurts the country, but it will also hurt banks. I'm sure you're getting tons of comments, so I'll keep mine short and sweet.
