Completion of the Form

Inquiries concerning the preparation and filing of this form should be directed to the appropriate Reserve Bank, as defined in section 211.21(c) of Regulation K. The required form is to be filed by submitting the information requested in the appropriate attachment to the appropriate Reserve Bank. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit their applications electronically through the Federal Reserve System's web-based application (E-Apps)². Additional information on E-Apps may be found on the Board's public website. Alternative formats, if used, must provide all requested information. The application and notification must be substantially complete and responsive to each item of information requested (including an indication that the answer is "not applicable" or "none" where such is the case) in order to be considered properly filed. The appropriate Reserve Bank, concurrently with Board staff, will review the submitted form to determine if it is substantially complete. As necessary to complete the record of the application and notification, a request for additional information will be sent to the contact person named in the form.

1. A foreign banking organization seeking approval to establish a commercial lending company also must have or obtain authority under section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act and Regulation Y to engage in the nonbanking activities of the commercial lending company. An organization not already having such authority may incorporate a request for the authority into the filing made under FBSEA.

2. The application may alternatively be submitted in paper form.

3. See SR 15-8 Name Check Process for Domestic and International Applications.

The Federal Reserve reserves the right to require the filing of additional statements and information. If any information initially furnished in the application and notification changes significantly during processing of the application and notification, such changes should be communicated promptly to the appropriate Reserve Bank. Under certain circumstances, name check and financial information related to individuals involved in a proposed transaction may be required. Such information for individuals should be submitted on the Interagency Biographical and Financial Report (FR 2081c; OMB No. 7100-0134), and may be submitted in advance of the application.³ Contact the appropriate Reserve Bank for further information.

Information already provided in applications filed with state or federal bank regulatory authorities or otherwise previously provided to the Federal Reserve may be used to meet the information requirements of the FR K-2.

Financial Holding Companies

If the applicant seeks to become a financial holding company in connection with the establishment of the office, it must submit the necessary written declaration as part of the FR K-2 filing. The declaration must conform to section 4(l) of the BHC Act and Regulation Y (sections 225.81 and 225.82, or sections 225.90, 225.91, and 225.92, as appropriate). The applicant should contact the appropriate Reserve Bank and consult the Board's public website for further information.

Access to Information and Consent to Jurisdiction Commitments

The applicant and its ultimate parent (as defined in 12 C.F.R. § 211.21(u)), if any, should provide (jointly and separately) the commitments contained in Attachment E through an officer that is authorized to bind the entity making the commitment. The commitments should be provided in the exact form provided (including all footnote references).

Tiered Applicant Organizations

In tiered organizations, the applicant should consult with the appropriate Reserve Bank regarding the financial, managerial, and operational information that should be provided. Generally each parent foreign bank of the applicant foreign bank must respond individually to the items related to internal controls, financial information, home-country supervision, and anti-money-laundering and other related measures.

Instructions for Preparation of FR K-2—Continued

Financial Information

The financial statements should be stated in the local currency of the country in which the head office of the applicant/notificant is located. The financial statements may also be stated in U.S. dollars, but conversion to U.S. dollars is not required. The statements should be prepared in accordance with local accounting practices; however, an explanation of the accounting terminology and the major features of the accounting standards used in the preparation of the financial statements must be provided. This explanation should include a discussion of the following practices and any other material practices as determined by the applicant/notificant:

- The accounting principles used for consolidation of investments on a line-by-line basis in the preparation of financial statements. Comments should address the criteria by which majority-owned companies are consolidated on a line-by-line basis, and the basis for carrying value and manner of income recognition of any majority-owned subsidiaries that are not consolidated on a line-by-line basis. The method of valuation of investments in which the applicant/notificant holds an ownership interest of between 20 and 50 percent (i.e., historical cost, net asset value (book value), market value, or appraised value) and the manner of the recognition of income should be included. (Separate financial statements may be required for any majority-owned subsidiary and any 20 percent to 50 percent owned company controlled by the applicant/notificant that is not consolidated on a line-by-line basis, but only if the or company equal more than 5 percent of the applicant's/notificant's consolidated assets).
- The accounting practices used in the valuation, e.g., historical cost, net asset value (book value), market value, or appraised value, of short-term investments, long-term investments, and fixed assets. Comments should disclose the manner of recognition of increases and/or decreases in the value of the assets.
- The recording of guarantees, letters of credit, contingencies, leases, pension obligations, and other similar accounts on the books of the applicant/notificant and any parent foreign bank. Comments should indicate whether such accounts are carried as assets and/or liabilities on the applicant's/notificant's financial statements, are disclosed as footnotes to the financial statements, or are undisclosed.
- The method used in translating foreign currency transactions and foreign currency financial statements with respect to current assets, long-term investments, fixed assets, long-term debt, and forward exchange contracts. Comments should include the method of recognition of any gains or losses resulting from such translation and the effect of the translation upon the recognition of revenue and expense and the determination of net income.
- The method by which interest revenue and interest expense are recorded on the books of the applicant/notificant.

Home-Country Supervision

In order to approve an application, or act on a notification, by a foreign bank to establish a branch, agency, or commercial lending company in the United States, the Federal Reserve ordinarily seeks to determine that the applicant/notificant and any parent foreign bank are subject to comprehensive supervision or regulation on a consolidated basis by the appropriate authorities in the home country of each bank. The Federal Reserve considers this standard met if the foreign bank's home-country supervisor receives sufficient information on the foreign bank's worldwide operations (including the bank's relationships to any affiliates) to assess the foreign bank's overall financial condition and compliance with law and regulation. In making such a determination, the Federal Reserve assesses, among other factors, the extent to which the home-country supervisor:

- ensures that the foreign bank has adequate procedures for monitoring and controlling its activities worldwide;
- obtains information on the condition of the foreign bank and its subsidiaries and offices outside the home country through regular reports of examination, audit reports, or otherwise;
- obtains information on the dealings and relationship between the foreign bank and its affiliates, both foreign and domestic;
- receives from the foreign bank financial reports that are consolidated on a worldwide basis, or comparable information that permits analysis of the foreign bank's financial condition on a worldwide, consolidated basis; and
- evaluates prudential standards, such as capital adequacy and risk asset exposure, on a worldwide basis.

Under the Economic Growth and Regulatory Paperwork Reduction Act of 1996, which was enacted on September 30, 1996, the Federal Reserve may approve an application, or not object to a notification, to establish a branch or agency subject to certain conditions even if the Federal Reserve is unable to find that the foreign bank is subject to comprehensive consolidated supervision. Specifically, the Federal Reserve may approve an application, or not object to a notification, by such foreign bank if (i) the appropriate authorities in the home country of such foreign bank are working to establish arrangements for the consolidated supervision of such bank; and (ii) all other factors are consistent with approval. In deciding whether to use its discretion with respect to a determination concerning comprehensive consolidated supervision, the Federal Reserve also considers the extent to which the foreign bank has adopted and implemented procedures to combat money laundering. The Federal Reserve also takes into account the extent to which the home country of the foreign bank has developed a legal regime to address money laundering or is participating in multilateral efforts to combat money laundering.

In evaluating a filing to establish a representative office, the Federal Reserve takes into account the standards that apply to the establishment of branches and agencies, but a finding of comprehensive consolidated supervision is not required. With respect to supervision by home-country authorities, a foreign bank that proposes to establish a representative office must be subject to a supervisory framework that is consistent with the activities of the proposed representative office, taking into account the nature of such activities and the operating record of the applicant/notificant. Among the factors the Federal Reserve may consider are the extent to which there is:

- regular review of a substantial portion of the bank's operations by the home-country supervisor through examination, review of external audits, or a comparable method;
- submission of periodic reports relating to financial performance; and
- assurance that the bank itself has a system of internal monitoring and control that enable bank management to administer properly the bank's operations.

Publication Requirement

The applicant/notificant is required to publish notice of its proposal in a newspaper of general circulation in the community in which the office is proposed to be located. A copy of the standard form of notice prescribed by the Board is set forth below. Proof of publication of the notice should be submitted when available.

Newspaper Notice

Notification is hereby given by [NAME OF APPLICANT/NOTIFICANT, CITY, COUNTRY] that an [APPLICATION/NOTIFICATION] has been filed with the Federal Reserve Board to establish a [BRANCH, AGENCY, COMMERCIAL LENDING COMPANY, REPRESENTATIVE OFFICE] at [ADDRESS], pursuant to the International Banking Act of 1978.

Interested parties may submit written comments on the filing to [NAME AND TITLE OF APPROPRIATE OFFICER], Federal Reserve Bank of [CITY, ADDRESS]. The 30-day comment period will not end before [DATE]. If you need more information about how to submit your comments, contact [NAME AND TITLE OF APPROPRIATE OFFICER], Federal Reserve Bank of [CITY], at [AREA CODE AND TELEPHONE NUMBER].

Confidentiality

Under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act (the "FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552, the application/notification is a public document and available to the public upon request. Once submitted, an application/notification becomes a record of the Board and may be requested by any member of the public. Board records generally must be disclosed unless they are determined to fall, in whole or in part, within the scope of one or more of the FOIA exemptions from disclosure. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(1)-(9).

The exempt categories include (but are not limited to) "trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential" (exemption 4), and information that, if disclosed, "would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" (exemption 6). The applicant/notificant may request confidential treatment for any information submitted in or in connection with its application/notification that the applicant/notificant believes is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. For example, if the applicant/notificant is of the opinion that disclosure of commercial or financial information would likely result in substantial harm to its competitive position or that of its subsidiaries, or that disclosure of information of a personal nature would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, confidential treatment of such information may be requested.

The request for confidential treatment must be submitted in writing concurrently with the filing of the application/notification (or subsequent related submissions), and must discuss in detail the justification for confidential treatment. Such justification must be provided for each portion of the application/notification (or related submissions) for which confidential treatment is requested. The applicant's/notificant's reasons for requesting confidentiality must specifically describe the harm that would result from public release of the information. A statement simply indicating that the information would result in competitive harm or that it is personal in nature is not sufficient. In addition, a claim that disclosure would violate the law or policy of a foreign country is not, in and of itself, sufficient to exempt information from disclosure. The applicant/notificant must demonstrate that disclosure would fall within the scope of one or more of the FOIA exemptions from disclosure. The applicant/notificant must follow the steps outlined immediately below, and certify in the application/notification (or related submissions) that these steps have been followed.

Information for which confidential treatment is requested should be:

- (1) specifically identified in the public portion of the application/notification (by reference to the confidential section);
- (2) separately bound; and
- (3) labeled "CONFIDENTIAL."

With respect to applications/notifications that include information regarding an individual or individuals associated with the proposed transaction, the Board expects the applicant to certify that it has obtained the consent of the individual(s) to public release of such information prior to its submission to the Board or, in the absence of such consent, to submit (or ensure that the individual(s) submit(s)) a timely request for confidential treatment of the information in accordance with these instructions. Information submitted directly by an individual or individuals will become part of the relevant application/notification record, and, accordingly, will be a Board record subject to being requested by any member of the public under the FOIA.

The Federal Reserve will determine whether information submitted as confidential will be so regarded, and will advise the applicant/notificant of any decision to make available to the public information labeled “CONFIDENTIAL.” However, it shall be understood that, without prior notice to the applicant/notificant, the Board may disclose or comment on any of the contents of the application/notification in the Order or Statement issued by the Board in connection with its decision on the application/notification. The Board’s staff normally will apprise the applicant/notificant in the course of the review process that such information may need to be disclosed in connection with the Board’s action on the application/notification.

For further information on the procedures for requesting confidential treatment and the Board’s procedures for addressing such requests, consult the Board’s Rules, including 12 C.F.R. § 261.15, which governs requests for confidential treatment.

Supporting Information

The Federal Reserve specifically reserves the right to require the filing of additional statements and information. The formal questions in the application/notification are not intended to limit an applicant’s/notificant’s presentation. The applicant/notificant bears the full burden of presenting and documenting a case to meet the statutory criteria for approval. Supporting information for any or all factors, setting forth the basis for the applicant’s/notificant’s judgment may accompany the application/notification.

Compliance

The applicant/notificant is expected to comply with all representations and commitments made in its application/notification. The applicant/notificant should immediately contact the appropriate Reserve Bank if there is any material change in the information presented prior to the establishment of the office.

Attachment A

In this regard, the applicant should address whether it engages directly in banking activities usual in connection with the business of banking in the countries in which it is organized or operates.
2. Provide a copy of the applicant's most recent annual report to shareholders and a brief history of the applicant, including ranking by asset size in the home country.
3. Provide a brief summary of the applicant's experience in international banking. The discussion should include a general description of the volume and character of the applicant's current international business and the location, number, and asset size of direct offices overseas.
4. Provide an organization chart for the applicant and its ultimate parent,⁴ if any, showing all subsidiaries of the applicant and its ultimate parent. Include the place of incorporation for all subsidiaries.
5. Provide the name, asset size, general activities, and ownership share held by the applicant for each of the applicant's direct and indirect subsidiaries that comprise 1 percent or more of the applicant's worldwide consolidated assets.
6. List all persons (natural as well as legal) in the upstream chain of ownership of the applicant who, directly or indirectly, own 5 percent or more of the voting shares of the applicant and its ultimate parent, if any. Provide information concerning any voting agreements or other mechanisms that exist among shareholders for the exercise of control over the applicant or its ultimate parent.
7. Provide the following information on the two individuals with the most senior decisionmaking authority for the applicant and any foreign bank parent, and for the manager of the proposed U.S. office:
 - a. Titles or positions with the applicant and/or parent bank; and
 - b. The information requested in the Interagency Biographical and Financial Report FR 2081c (senior decision makers need not provide the Financial Report). This information may be submitted in advance of the application.
8. Describe the methods used by the applicant to monitor and control its operations, including those of its domestic and foreign subsidiaries and offices (e.g., through internal reports and internal audits). Note the scope and frequency of those methods and whether the methods are subject to review by external auditors and/or the home-country supervisor. Also, state whether internal audit results are shared with the home-country supervisor and/or the applicant's external auditors.
9. If the applicant, its ultimate parent, or any company (banking or nonbanking) in which it has direct or indirect ownership or control of more than 5 percent of the voting shares will engage directly or indirectly at the time of consummation of this proposal in any nonbanking activities in the United States, provide the following:
 - a. The name, location, and a detailed description of the activities of each such company;
 - b. The specific section and paragraph of the Bank Holding Company Act (the "BHC Act"), Regulation Y, or Regulation K that the applicant believes provides authority for the acquisition or retention of each U.S. nonbanking activity and a description demonstrating that each activity will be conducted consistent with the Board's regulations and related interpretations. If the applicant has relied on the nonbanking exemptions afforded by sections 2(h) and 4(c)(9) of the BHC Act (as implemented by section 211.23 of Regulation K) for certain activities, provide the necessary information to support such a determination.

To the extent the information requested in this item has been provided to the Federal Reserve in other report forms (e.g., FR Y-7, FR Y-10) filed with the Federal Reserve, the applicant may include such information by reference to those filings.
10. State whether the foreign bank applicant and its ultimate parent, if any, upon establishment of the proposed branch, agency, or commercial lending company, each would be a qualifying foreign banking organization as defined in section 211.23(a) of Regulation K and provide the necessary information to support such a determination. If a foreign bank applicant meets the requirements of section 211.23(a) but its ultimate parent does not, indicate whether the ultimate parent would satisfy the requirements set forth in section 211.23(c) of Regulation K, and provide the necessary information to support that determination. To the extent the information requested in this item has been provided in other report forms (FR Y-7) filed with the Federal Reserve, the applicant may include such information by reference to those filings.

4. The "ultimate parent" of a foreign bank is the parent of the foreign bank that is not the subsidiary of any other company. A "parent" of a foreign bank is any company of which the foreign bank is a subsidiary. A "subsidiary" of a foreign bank is defined as any organization 25 percent or more of whose voting shares are directly or indirectly owned, controlled, or held with the power to vote by a company or any organization that is otherwise controlled or capable of being controlled by a foreign bank or foreign banking organization.

II. The Proposed Office

11. Discuss the purpose(s) for establishing the proposed branch, agency, or commercial lending company. Describe the major types of business to be conducted and the major types of services to be offered, and note whether any existing business would be transferred to the proposed office. The applicant may indicate any banking needs of the community that would be better served by establishment of the proposed office.
12. Provide estimated start-up costs and projected balance sheets and income statements for the proposed branch, agency, or commercial lending company for the first three years of operations. Include a summary of contingent liabilities for the proposed office for the first three years of operation, and estimate the number of employees planned for that period of time. Also include information on how the proposed office would be funded. State any assumptions made in formulating these projections.
13. Describe the applicant's intended procedures for exercising internal control over the proposed office. The response should identify reporting channels and reporting requirements (scope and frequency), and discuss the scope and frequency of internal audits. The applicant also should describe procedures to be established to ensure and monitor compliance with the Bank Secrecy Act and related U.S. regulations.

III. Financial Information

14. As described in the Filing Instructions to this form, provide the following financial information for the applicant and any parent foreign bank:
 - a. Parent-only and consolidated balance sheets, showing separately each principal group of assets, liabilities, and capital accounts as of the end of the most recent quarter and fiscal year-end. In addition, include information on contingent liabilities (i.e., standby and commercial letters of credit, guaranties, commitments to grant or purchase loans and securities, contracts to purchase/sell foreign exchange).
 - b. Parent-only and consolidated income statements showing separately each principal source of revenue and expense, through the end of the most recent fiscal quarter and for the past two (2) fiscal years.
 - c. If the applicant or any parent foreign bank is from a country subscribing to the Basel Accord, indicate the approach (standardized or advanced) followed by the applicant or any parent foreign bank for calculating risk-weighted assets. Provide, on a consolidated basis, a breakdown of each organization's risk-weighted assets as of the end of the most recent fiscal quarter, showing each principal group of on and off-balance-sheet assets and the relevant risk weight. Also, identify the components of common equity tier 1, additional tier 1, and tier 2 capital pursuant to capital adequacy regulations, and provide calculations of common equity tier 1 capital, tier 1 capital, total capital and leverage ratios for the applicant and any parent foreign bank. If applicable, provide (i) the capital measure used as numerator and the exposure measure used as denominator in the calculation of the Basel III leverage ratio, (ii) the minimum home country leverage ratio if the home country supervisor has established a leverage ratio separate from or in addition to the Basel III leverage ratio, and (iii) supplementary leverage ratios for each organization pursuant to the home country capital adequacy guidelines. The capital ratios should reflect both the minimum capital requirements and all applicable capital buffers. Provide the amount, maturity, and a brief description of debt instruments and indicate which instruments qualify under the Basel risk-based capital guidelines as tier 2 capital for each organization.

If the home-country capital standard for the applicant or any parent foreign bank differs from those established under the Basel Accord, provide information regarding the capital standard applied in the home country of the applicant or any parent foreign bank, as well as information sufficient to evaluate the capital position adjusted as appropriate for accounting and structural differences.

- d. Current information that will enable the Federal Reserve to make a judgment as to the quality of the applicant's assets. The information should be presented for the applicant's consolidated organization. If consolidated figures are not available, indicate what portion of the applicant's consolidated assets is not reflected in the response. The response should include, but need not be limited to, the following (the applicant should provide definitions of the terms):
 - i. Asset classifications or assessments made by foreign banking authorities;
 - ii. Delinquencies;
 - iii. Nonaccrual loans;
 - iv. Assets acquired in satisfaction of debts previously contracted;
 - v. Loans with reduced interest charges, or otherwise restructured; and
 - vi. Foregone interest income on non-accrual and reduced interest loans.

- e. Total reserves available to cover credit-related losses for the most recent fiscal quarter- and fiscal year-ends. The total amounts should be broken down into “specific,” “general,” and/or other relevant categories.

IV. Home-Country Supervision

15. Describe the bank regulatory system that exists in the home country of the applicant and, if different, the home country of any foreign bank in the ownership chain.³ Your response should identify the applicant’s primary home-country supervisor and the major laws governing the applicant’s operations and activities.

Your description also should include a discussion of each of the following:

- a. The scope and frequency of on-site examinations by the home-country supervisor. Describe the scope and frequency of on-site examinations, identifying the operational areas reviewed and the general procedures used by the home-country supervisor to evaluate asset quality and internal controls. Also, discuss the manner in which the home-country supervisor monitors the condition and operations of the applicant’s subsidiaries and foreign offices.
- b. Off-site monitoring by the home-country supervisor. Discuss the general type and frequency of filing of regulatory and financial reports submitted by the applicant to the home-country supervisor. Specify whether the reports contain information on the domestic and foreign subsidiaries of the applicant and, if so, whether this information is provided on a consolidated basis or for each entity separately.
- c. The role of external auditors. Discuss the general frequency, nature, and scope of review of the applicant (including subsidiaries and foreign offices) performed by external auditors, particularly with respect to the review of asset quality and internal controls. Discuss whether the home-country supervisor sets standards for such reviews and the manner (if at all) by which the external audit results are communicated to the home-country supervisor. Include a brief discussion of the general standards or requirements that apply to the external auditors themselves.
- d. Transactions with affiliates. Indicate whether (and, if so, discuss how) the home-country supervisor regulates and monitors the applicant’s transactions with its affiliates (e.g., through reporting requirements, lending limits, or other restrictions). Define the home-country’s definition of “affiliate” for this purpose (if different from the Federal Reserve’s definition),⁴ and specify whether any such restrictions apply to “upstream,” “downstream,” or “sister” affiliates.

- e. Other applicable prudential requirements. To the extent not previously addressed, describe any prudential limitations (e.g., with respect to capital adequacy, asset classification and provisioning, single or aggregate credit and foreign currency exposure limits, and liquidity) that are imposed on the operations of the applicant. Describe the methods used by the home-country supervisor to monitor compliance with these limitations.
- f. Remedial authority of the home-country supervisor. Describe the general methods available to the home-country supervisor to enforce the applicant’s compliance with prudential controls and other supervisory or regulatory requirements.
- g. Prior approval requirements. Indicate whether prior approval of the home-country supervisor is needed for the applicant to make investments in other companies, or generally to establish overseas offices. Indicate the type of information the home-country supervisor reviews in making its determination.
16. Indicate what other domestic regulatory authorities, if any, in addition to the primary home-country supervisor, supervise subsidiaries or particular activities of the applicant. Briefly describe the financial and/or examination requirements, including the general scope and frequency of on-site examinations, if any, of each such regulatory authority. Also, discuss whether such regulatory authorities exchange information with the primary home-country supervisor, including financial or other supervisory information.

V. Anti-Money-Laundering and Other Related Measures

17. Describe any home-country laws or regulations that are designed to deter or prohibit money laundering, terrorist financing, or other illicit activities. Also, describe the requirements that the applicant’s (and any parent foreign bank’s) home-country supervisor imposes on banks for the detection and prevention of money laundering, terrorist financing, and other illicit activities, and the reporting of suspicious transactions.

3. If the Federal Reserve has previously determined that another bank from the applicant’s home country is subject to comprehensive consolidated supervision, the applicant may request a copy of the previous application from the Federal Reserve under the Freedom of Information Act. After reviewing the record in the previous application, the applicant may make a statement that it is subject to the same supervisory regime as the foreign bank previously considered by the Federal Reserve, rather than responding to each subpart of this question. In addition, the applicant should confirm that there have been no material changes in the manner in which the applicant is supervised and regulated by its home-country supervisor(s) since that previous application or, if material changes have occurred, the applicant should describe such changes.

4. An “affiliate” of a foreign bank or of a parent of a foreign bank means any company that controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the foreign bank or the parent of the foreign bank.

18. Discuss the actions taken by the applicant (and any parent foreign bank) to ensure that the bank and its offices and subsidiaries have implemented sufficient safeguards to prevent such operations from being used for purposes of money laundering, terrorist financing, or other illicit activities. The response should describe:
- The anti-money-laundering policies and procedures implemented, including any customer due diligence, recordkeeping, and cash and/or suspicious transaction reporting requirements;
 - The steps taken to ensure compliance with these policies and procedures (including the nature and frequency of employee training and compliance monitoring by internal auditors); and
 - The extent to which these policies and procedures are subject to independent external audit and examination by the home-country supervisor.

The response should indicate whether the financial institution-specific recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force (“FATF”) have been implemented throughout the organization.⁵ The response also should confirm (or modify as appropriate) that the anti-money-laundering and counter-terrorist financing policies and procedures would be implemented at the proposed U.S. office.

VI. Miscellaneous
