Existing rate maintained.

Subject to review and determination by the Board of Governors, the directors of the Federal Reserve Banks of St. Louis and San Francisco had voted on March 13, 2003, to establish a primary credit rate of 1-3/4 percent (a reduction from 2-1/4 percent). The directors of the Federal Reserve Banks of Boston, Cleveland, Richmond, Atlanta, Chicago, Kansas City, and Dallas had voted on March 13, 2003, to maintain the existing rate.

At today’s meeting, the Board discussed recent economic developments and the unusually large uncertainties clouding the geopolitical situation. No sentiment was expressed in favor of taking action on the primary credit rate before tomorrow’s meeting of the Federal Open Market Committee, and the existing rate was maintained.
