DISCOUNT RATES -- Establishment without change by twelve Reserve Banks of the existing primary credit rate.

Subject to review and determination by the Board of Governors, the directors of the Federal Reserve Banks of New York, Philadelphia, and Minneapolis had voted on March 4, 2004; the directors of the Federal Reserve Banks of Cleveland, Richmond, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Dallas, and San Francisco had voted on March 11; and the directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston had voted on March 12 to reestablish the existing rate for discounts and advances (2 percent) under the primary credit program (primary credit rate).

At today’s meeting, the Board discussed the continued appropriateness of the current accommodative stance of monetary policy in light of recent and prospective economic developments, including indications that job losses had slowed while new hiring had lagged. Board members agreed that the current stance of monetary policy seemed appropriate, and they discussed communication of the developments that warranted this stance. Thereupon, the discussion concluded with no further consideration of the primary credit rate, and the existing rate was maintained.

Participating in this determination: Chairman Greenspan, Vice Chairman Ferguson, and Governors Gramlich, Bies, Olson, Bernanke, and Kohn.
