DISCOUNT AND ADVANCE RATES -- Establishment without change by twelve Reserve Banks of the existing primary credit rate.

Existing rate maintained.

Subject to review and determination by the Board of Governors, the directors of the Federal Reserve Banks of Boston, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Richmond, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Dallas, and San Francisco had voted on April 22, 2004, and the directors of the Federal Reserve Banks of New York, Minneapolis, and Kansas City had voted on April 29, to reestablish the existing rate for discounts and advances (2 percent) under the primary credit program (primary credit rate).

At today’s meeting, the Board discussed the continued appropriateness of the current accommodative stance of monetary policy and the communication of its potential duration in light of recent and prospective economic developments. Board members agreed that the current stance of monetary policy seemed appropriate and that some modification in communication about the future course of policy appeared warranted. Thereupon, the discussion concluded with no further consideration of the primary credit rate, and the existing rate was maintained.
