

Phishing Scams Transcript
Federal Reserve Board

NARRATOR. If you get an email or social media message, supposedly from the Federal Reserve, saying they need your Social Security and bank account numbers before they transfer funds to you, don't take the bait! DO NOT share any personal information or click on any links and delete them immediately. It's a scam, an attempt to steal your information. If you've already taken the bait and think your personal financial information has been compromised, contact your bank and local law enforcement. You can also file a complaint with the FBI's Internet Crime Complaint Center at ic3.gov.

NARRATOR. To find out more about this and other scams, click on the link in this post.